In accordance with Article 12(3) of the EU Regulation, the Company is obliged to inform you free of charge of the measures taken without undue delay and in any case within one month of receipt of the request. This period may be extended by a further two months if necessary and in view of the complexity and number of requests. The Company shall inform you of any such extension within one month of receipt of the request, together with the reasons for the delay.

Pursuant to Article 12(4) of the EU Regulation, if the Company does not comply with your request, it will inform you without delay (within one month at the latest) of the reasons for non-compliance and of the possibility to file a complaint with the supervisory authority (Office for Personal Data Protection, Pplk. Sochora 27, 170 00 Prague 7) and to seek judicial protection.

In accordance with Article 12(5) of the EU Regulation, the Company is not obliged to grant your request in whole or in part if the request is manifestly unfounded or unreasonable, in particular because it keeps repeating. In such cases, the Company may:

- (i) charge a reasonable fee taking into account administrative costs; or
- (ii) refuse to grant the request.

In accordance with Article 12(6) of the EU Regulation, if the Company has doubts about the identity of the sender of the request, it may ask you to provide additional information necessary to confirm your identity.
